On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Derby County who come to Burnden with two points to their credit from their four games this season—the same position we find ourselves in.

I know we are not playing as well as we can, but all credit to our players for the way they are showing character and the right attitude.

This is most important and Liverpool are not doing what they are doing without the right attitude.

I am pleased with our lads in that sense although I am disappointed that we are not putting our game together as we might.

This is something that we can concentrate on doing something about and I am convinced that in the long run it will come right.

Part of our problems concerns the number of players who have been injured since the season started. We have never, at any stage, been able to select from a hundred per cent squad.

It has meant that we have stepped into a higher grade and found life rather difficult. But we shall battle on and keep the flag flying and I am sure we'll come through.

Anyone who knows me will say that one of my assets is that I am a better fighter when the chips are down.

I was disappointed that we didn't beat Birmingham City last Saturday, conceding an equaliser with just three minutes of the game left. But I was delighted to see Frank Worthington among the goals again with another couple.

Welcome to...

When Tommy Docherty took over as Derby's manager last September he found the team almost bottom of the First Division with but three points from six games.

They were beaten again the following week at Liverpool and it was then that the new boss realised he had a complete re-building operation on his hands.

One of his first moves was to sign goalkeeper John Middleton from Nottingham Forest. Later deals brought Bruce Rioch to Derby from Everton for £150,000, Gerry Ryan was snapped up from Bohemians for £40,000 and he was followed by left-back Steve Buckley from Luton (£150,000) and Gordon Hill from Manchester United (£275,000).

Don Masson, Scotland's midfield man, joined the club in a straight swap for Leighton James though Masson has this season moved on again to Notts. County.

Apart from James, six other regular first-teamers at the time of Docherty's arrival have now left the club: Derek Hales, Archie Gemmill, Jeff King, Billy Hughes, Kevin Hector and Rod Thomas.

The new manager's policy showed quick results. Derby beat Middlesbrough 4—1 and also won their next two matches. By Christmas they were well clear of the relegation zone and they eventually finished in twelfth place.

Though Derby have not made a particularly bright start to this season there have as yet been no suggestions that Mr. Docherty would be in the market for further signings though, with Don Masson going and the possibility that Bruce Rioch might also be on the move, the situation could change and cash will be available to play the transfer market if it is needed.

Unless there have been some recent signings we shall probably see a front line of Gerry Ryan, Charlie George and Gordon Hill in action today.

Before George had returned from the U.S.A., Derby used young Colin Chesters at centre-forward, just as they did with some success when George was unavailable last season.

Now that the Rams are so well served at left-back, since the arrival of Steve Buckley at the end of last season, David Nish has reverted to his old role in midfield where he has been partnered by Gerry Daly and Steve Powell.

It seems that the back four is now settled with David Langan, Roy McFarland, Colin Todd and Steve Buckley in possession. John Middleton is holding the goalkeeping position.

Derby opened the season with a 1—1 home draw against Manchester City but then lost 1—2 at Everton after holding the lead at half-time.

They then drew 1—1 at Birmingham and eventually ran up their first victory when they visited Second Division Leicester City in the second round of the League Cup.

The only goal of the game came from winger Gordon Hill in the 52nd minute and it earned the Rams a third round tie at Southampton.

It's only three years since Derby County won the League Championship for the second time, their previous success being in 1972 when they were managed by Brian Clough.

Since then the club has suffered a series of serious set-backs. In 1973 there was the explosion following the departure of Mr. Clough and his assistant Peter Taylor when several players threatened strike action.

DERBY COUNTY

Dave Mackay quietened those troubled waters and led the club to their Championship success in 1975 yet, only 18 months later, he left and the job was given to Colin Murphy.

His immediate task was to pull the club clear of relegation and he succeeded in doing just that. Even so, there was always some doubt about the permanency of his position and last season's poor opening led to his departure from the Baseball Ground.

Until Brian Clough arrived in 1967, the club had employed only four previous managers since the end of the last war — Stuart McMillan, Jack Barker, Harry Storer and Tim Ward.

The great irony is that, under those men, the club's only major success was in winning the F.A. Cup in 1946. Indeed, at one stage the club fell into Third Division football.

Though Clough and his successors have led the club to two League titles and to the semi-final of the European Cup — unprecedented success for the Rams — the changes in leadership have gone on.

JOHN MIDDLETON (Goalkeeper). John served his apprenticeship with Nottingham Forest, made his League bow in 1974/75 and two seasons later won the first of his two England under-21 caps. Derby signed him at the beginning of last season and at the end of the term he went on the England "B" tour to the Far East, playing twice.

DAVID LANGAN (Defender). David joined Derby as an apprentice in 1973 after unsuccessful trials with Manchester United and Birmingham. He came into the Derby side two seasons ago and last season, when he won two Republic of Ireland caps, he was ever-present.

ROY McFARLAND (Defender). Roy has been capped by England on 28 occasions and he also won five England under-23 caps. He began his career in the Fourth Division with Tranmere and Derby signed him for £25,000 in 1967. Apart from one season's absence through injury he has been one of the Rams' central defenders ever since.

COLIN TODD (Defender). Colin joined Derby from Sunderland for £170,000 in 1971 and it wasn't long before he went on to establish himself in the England team. After England youth honours, Colin won 14 under-23 and 27 full caps. In his early days with Sunderland he used to play in midfield.

STEVE BUCKLEY (Defender). Steve earned his chance in Luton's League team in 1974/75 and was an immediate success. He had for some while been hoping to move to a First Division club and he got his wish at the end of last season when Derby paid £150,000 for his transfer.

GERRY RYAN (Forward). Gerry joined Derby from Bohemians for £40,000 last season and shortly afterwards he was picked for his first full international cap by the Republic of Ireland. He scored four goals for Derby last season.

COLIN CHESTERS (Forward). Colin got his first opportunities in Derby's League team last season and scored his first goal in the final match of the season against Arsenal.

STEVE POWELL (Midfield). Steve has been with Derby since his school-boy days. Upon completing his apprenticeship, he signed professionally in November 1972 and was given a few chances in the first-team before the season was out. He was later capped for England under-23s.

DAVID NISH (Midfield). David is now back in his favourite midfield position after playing left-back for most of the time since his £225,000 transfer from Leicester in 1972. He won ten England under-23 caps, mostly as a midfield player, but gained his five full caps as a left-back.

CHARLIE GEORGE (Forward). Charlie was Derby's second-highest scorer with 11 goals last season. He began his controversial career with Arsenal but after several times falling into dispute with the club, he moved to Derby for £80,000 in 1975. He has been capped by England on one occasion so far.

GERRY DALY (Midfield). Gerry has played for the Republic of Ireland on 13 occasions. He left Bohemians for Manchester United in April 1973 and made his bow in the Reds' senior team the following season. He moved to Derby for £165,000 in 1977 and last season scored 12 goals for the Rams.

BRUCE RIOCH (Midfield). Bruce was a member of Scotland's World Cup team in Argentina and now has 24 caps. After leading Luton's scoring list twice, Bruce was transferred to Aston Villa for £100,000 in 1969, settling down as a midfield player. Derby signed him for £200,000 in 1974 but sold him to Everton for £180,000 two seasons ago. He returned to the Baseball Ground last season in a £150,000 deal.

PETER DANIEL (Defender). Loyal Peter is one of the club's longest-serving players. When he was first introduced to their League team in 1965 he held a regular place for two seasons. Since then, however, he has had to be content with the understudy's role. During the summer he played for Hector F.C. of Vancouver.

With the Juniors

Bolton Wanderers' scouting strength in North Wales has never been stronger and this has paid off through Bangor-born Keith Owen joining the club as an apprentice professional in the close season.

Keith, who plays in midfield or defence was recommended to the Wanderers by scout Ernest Holt, who has done good work for the club for many years in the Bolton area.

A former Worsley headmaster, he retired to North Wales three or four years ago and is now busy in his new area.

Another player he has brought to Burnden is goalkeeper David Felgate who along with Keith, is a Welsh schoolboy international.

Keith had trials about 18 months ago and was offered schoolboy forms by Chief Scout Jim Conway—which he accepted. Since then he paid regular visits to Bolton, particularly in the school holidays and became an apprentice on leaving school this summer.

So far his appearances have been mainly confined to the 'A' team in the First Division of the Lancashire League as he continues to learn his trade.

The apprenticeship scheme lasts from a youngster leaving school until three months before his 18th birthday when a decision has to be made as to whether or not he will be offered terms as a full professional.

And every club can tell stories about players not becoming full pros., leaving the club, and making the grade elsewhere.
